Conditions of Sale.

- FIRST.—The highest bidder to be the purchaser, and if any dispute arise between two or more bidders, the lot so disputed shall, upon the decision of the auctioneer, be immediately put up again and re-sold, which shall be a final settlement of any disputed lot. The Auctioneer reserves to himself the right to refuse any bidding he pleases and of altering, withdrawing or bidding for any of the lots.
- SECOND.—No person to advance less than 1s., above two pounds 2s., and so on in proportion.
- THIRD.—The contract for sale to be deemed in all cases as made exclusively with the auctioneer, and the payment made to him only.
- FOURTH.—The purchasers are to give in their names and places of abode, and to pay down a deposit of 5s. in the £, or more, in part payment, or the whole of the purchase money, if required, such deposit not to be considered as a deposit on a single lot only, but to ride over all lots purchased by the same buyer; in default of which the lot or lots so purchased to be put up again and re-sold at any convenient opportunity during the sale or otherwise.
- FIFTH.—If any person purchase more than one lot, they shall be deemed one entire purchase between such person and the auctioneer, and no lot or portion of a lot shall be demanded for delivery by any purchaser before the purchase-money be paid for the whole of his or her lots.
- SIXTH.—The lots are to be paid for, taken, and removed, whether genuine and authentic or not, immediately after the sale, with all faults and errors of description, at the expense of the purchasers; the auctioneer not being responsible for the correct description, genuineness or authenticity of, or any fault or defect in any lot and making no warranty whatever, and it shall be assumed that the purchaser has inspected any lot he buys.
- SEVENTH.—To prevent inaccuracy in delivery and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchases, no lot can on any account be removed during the time of sale and the whole of the purchase-money must absolutely be paid on delivery.
- EIGHTH.—The auctioneer will not be answerable for any loss or damage occasioned to any lot by fire, accident or otherwise after the fall of the hammer.
- LASTLY.—Upon failure of complying with the above conditions the money deposited in part payment shall be forfeited to the auctioneer, the lots remaining uncleared shall be re-sold by public or private sale, and the deficiency (if any) attending such re-sale, together with all incidental expenses and charges, shall be made good by the defaulters at this sale and be recoverable by the auctioneer accordingly.
